Get Your Social Security Statement Online

Now you can get your Social Security Statement online. It provides:

- Estimates of the retirement and disability benefits you may receive;
- Estimates of benefits your family may get when you receive Social Security or die;
- A list of your lifetime earnings according to Social Security's records;
- The estimated Social Security and Medicare taxes you've paid;
- Information about qualifying and signing up for Medicare;
- Things to consider for those age 55 and older who are thinking of retiring;
- General information about Social Security for everyone;
- The opportunity to apply online for retirement and disability benefits; and
- A printable version of your Social Security Statement.

How do I get my Statement online?

To get your Statement online, you must first create my Social Security account. Once you have an account, you can view your Social Security Statement at any time.

What should I do to create my Social Security account?

To create an account, you must provide some personal information about yourself and give us answers to some questions that only you are likely to know. Next you create a username and password that you will use to access your online account. This process protects you and keeps your personal Social Security information private.

Note

You may sign in or create an account to access your own personal information only. Unauthorized use of this service is a misrepresentation of your identity to the federal government and could subject you to criminal or civil penalties, or both.
